

Same-gender homophily is construction-insensitive — Spearman $\rho = 0.88$, $p = 0.0000$

How to read: distance from the diagonal = disagreement between constructions (NOT distance from 0). Points hug the line → co-occurrence reaches the same H1 answer as the directed addressee constructions. Direction and weight do not move the homophily statistic in this corpus.